

Workshop “Project Management” Fall semester 2023/2024

Name of the course	Workshop “Project Management”
Name of the lecturer	Oliver Paulick
Description of the course	This one-day workshop provides a basic understanding of project management with a focus on hands-on experience. Depending on the final number of participants, various practical exercises will be conducted – some as teamwork, some as single-person work packages. We will cover traditional PM as well as agile PM. These exercises are meant to be an engaging and interactive way to test and improve PM skills. Details are withheld on purpose; more information will be made available shortly before the workshop starts.
Dates	Saturday, 7 th October, 09:00 – 17:00 (face-to-face)
Kind of exam	Essay
Prerequisites required	Basic-level theoretical knowledge of PM methodology
Recommended reading	None
Working language	English
Available seats	20